

Lucie Bryndova received her Master degree in economics at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University in Prague. At the present time, Lucie is a PhD candidate in economics, specializing in public finance and health economics, and an instructor at the Faculty of Social Sciences.

Since September 2006 Lucie is an advisor to the Minister of Health of the Czech Republic. Previously, she worked for the General Health Insurance Company of the Czech Republic in the Department of Strategy (2005) and served as an advisor for structural reforms of public budgets to the Minister of Finance of the Czech Republic (2004). She also participates in the Health Reform.cz projects and has been contributing to its proposal for the health care reform in the Czech Republic.