

Augusto Iglesias Palau

Augusto Iglesias Palau is senior partner of PrimAmérica Consultores, a consulting firm based in Santiago, Chile, which specializes in pension reform and in the life insurance and pension industries. He consults for international organizations, governments and private institutions. During the past ten years he has participated in projects dealing with pension reform in several countries including Argentina, Bolivia, Colombia, Chile, Czech Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Macedonia, Mexico, Paraguay, Perú, Poland, Romania, Slovakia and Uruguay.

His areas of expertise are microeconomics (regulation, industrial organization and labor economics); pension reform; pension systems regulations; pension fund management companies, and capital market development. He has given lectures on pension reform issues in 27 different countries and has published more than 20 articles on different issues related to the practical experience of pension reform in Chile. He is also the co-author of one textbook on Introductory Economics.