

Veiko Tali

Veiko Tali is currently Deputy Secretary General responsible for Tax Policy, Financial Policy and Public Governance Policy. Previously he worked at the Institute of Economics of the Estonian Academy of Sciences and from 1993 - 2004 he worked at the Ministry of Finance of Estonia as a Head of Department.

He has been a member of the Governmental Social Insurance Reform Committee since 1997, and was one of the main coordinators of elaboration and implementation of pension reform (funded schemes) in Estonia. Veiko has been a member of Supervisory Boards of several state-owned companies and institutions. Since 2001 he is a member of the Supervisory Council of the Estonian integrated Financial Supervision Authority (FSA).

Veiko actively participated in the European Union accession negotiations and is now a member of different EU Committees (Financial Services Committee, European Securities Committee, European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Committee, European Banking Committee etc).

He studied at the Department of Economics of the State University of Moscow.