Latest Developments in Prudential Regulation and Supervision (Basel III and CRD IV)
October 17 – 18, 2013

Workshop Report

October 18, 2013
The workshop covered recent developments in the international and European Union (EU) regulatory and supervisory environment focusing on the new Basel III capital and liquidity requirements. They were developed as a set of reform measures to strengthen the regulation, supervision and risk management of the banking sector and should function on micro prudential as well as on macro prudential level.

The course was designed to provide the latest state of play in terms of the forthcoming EU solvency and liquidity regulation based on the Basel III standards.

Topics covered:

- State of play of liquidity risk supervision
- Liquidity Coverage Ratio (LCR)
- Net Stable Funding Ratio (NSFR)
- Basel III and CRD IV solvency regulation.

Lecturers:

- Jurgen Janssens, Advisor at the National Bank of Belgium
- David Guillaume, Head of Prudential Policy Banks at the National Bank of Belgium

Participants:

There were 9 participants from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Lithuania, Serbia, and Turkey.
