

CLIMATE AND ENVIRONMENTAL RISKS IN FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Webinars: February 7 – 8, 2023

AGENDA

DAY 1 – Tuesday, March 7

Time	Subject	Resource Person
10:00 – 10:15	Welcome and introductions	CEF
10:15 – 11:00	Climate change and the ECB – overview of activities Q&A	Giuseppe Barillà, Deputy Head of the Climate Change Centre, European Central Bank Pierre Monnin, Senior Fellow on environmental and social effects of monetary policy, Council for Economic Policies
11:00 – 11:25	Climate and environmental risks and their impact on the financial system	Pierre Monnin, Senior Fellow on environmental and social effects of monetary policy, Council for Economic Policies
11:25 – 11:55	The steps towards institutional actions in addressing the climate and environmental risks – the case of the Bank of Albania Q&A	Margerita Topalli, Senior Economist, Bank of Albania Pierre Monnin, Council for Economic Policies
11:55 – 12:00	Wrap Up and announcing Webinar 2	Ivana Gašparac, CEF Natasha Ilijeva Acevska, CEF

DAY 2 – Wednesday, March 8

Time	Subject	Resource Person
10:00 – 10:10	Opening	Ivana Gašparac, CEF Natasha Ilijeva Acevska, CEF
10:10 – 10:40	Building blocks for central banks to develop nature scenarios Q&A	Chiara Colesanti Senni, Post-Doctoral Researcher at University of Zürich and Fellow on environmental and social effects of monetary policy at Council for Economic Policies
10:20 – 11:00	Methodological approach and findings of the 2022 climate stress tests of BSI Q&A	Marko Bračković, Consultant Analyst, Systemic Supervision and Prudential Regulation, Bank of Slovenia
11:00 - 11:40	Climate and environmental risks in supervision of non-banking sector Q&A	Ionut Cosmin Lungu, Regulated Markets Senior Expert Ioana Aleksandra Radu
11:40 – 11:50	Closing	Authority for Financial Supervision, Romania Ivana Gašparac, CEF Natasha Ilijeva Acevska, CEF Matija Čarman, CEF